

Qualified Teacher

Exciting opportunity for a qualified kaiako to join our amazing KD whānau!

We are seeking an energetic, curious and fun-loving full-time qualified and NZ registered kaiako to join our infant-toddler teaching team.

If you:

- are inspired by the Reggio Emilia approach, RIE and Kaupapa Māori
- have excellent written and verbal communication skills
- love getting out into nature
- are playful and enjoy experimenting with new thinking and ideas
- are passionate about learning collaboratively as part of a diverse and inclusive researching community

we would LOVE to hear from you!

WHY KIDS' DOMAIN?

We will support you to reach your fullest potential. Kids' Domain is a not-for-profit organisation and that means we invest in our people. We highly value kaiako and are deeply committed to supporting well-being, on-going professional learning and leadership growth.

We are proud of our uniquely strong whānau culture that embraces respectful relationships, authenticity and aroha. You will be surrounded by caring people who work closely together to design dynamic learning experiences based on our innovative approach to collaborative inquiry.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Highly competitive pay rates including:
  - 10 days sick leave
  - 1 day birthday leave
  - ½ day cultural celebration leave
  - 5 weeks annual leave after 6 years continuous service
  - 50% childcare fees
  - Fully funded teacher registration and first aid certification
- Excellent professional learning opportunities
- Great adult-child ratios
- Supportive pedagogical leadership
- Excellent mentoring for teacher registration, if required.
